Progress 8

- Progress 8 measures the progress made by pupils from primary school to secondary school across eight qualifications.
- A school is considered well below average if their score is below -0.5; a score between 0 and -0.5 means the school is below the national average.
- A score between zero and +0.5 means that the school is considered above average.
- A score above +0.5 places a school well above the national average and in the top 20% of all schools nationally.
